<sup>11</sup> The similitude is this. The seede is the worde of God. <sup>12</sup> Thoose that are besyde the waye, are they that heare, and afterwarde cometh the devyll and taketh awaye the worde out of their hertes lest they shuld beleve and be saved. <sup>13</sup> They on the stonnes, are they which when they heare, receave the worde with joye. <sup>9</sup> And his disciples asked him what this parable was. <sup>10</sup> To whom he said, To you it is given to know the mysterie of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that seeing they may not see, and hearing may not understand. <sup>11</sup> And the parable is this: The seede, is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> And they besides the way: are those that heare, then the devil commeth, and taketh the word out of their hart, lest beleev- ing they be saved. <sup>13</sup> For they upon the rocke: such as when they heare, with joy receive the word: and these have no rootes: because for a time they beleve, and in time of ten- tation they revolt. <sup>14</sup> And that which fel into thornes, are they that have heard, and going their waies, are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and render not fruite. <sup>15</sup> And that upon good ground: are they which in a good and very good hart, hearing the word, doe reteine it, and yeld fruite in patience.

<sup>16</sup> And no man lighting a candel doth cover it with a ves- sel, or put it under a bed: but setteth it upon a candelsticke, that they that enter in, may see the light. <sup>17</sup> For there is not any thing secrete, that shal not be made manifest: nor hid, that shal not be knowen, and come abroad. <sup>18</sup> See therefore how you heare. <sup>45</sup>One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in saying this you reproach us also." <sup>46</sup>And he said, "Woe to you lawyers also! for you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed. <sup>48</sup>So you are witnesses and consent to the deeds of your fathers; for they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup>Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,' <sup>50</sup>that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it shall be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup>Woe to you lawyers! for you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

<sup>53</sup>As he went away from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him hard, and to provoke him to speak of many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in wait for him, to catch at something he might say.

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. <sup>11</sup> And there was a woman who had had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years; she was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. <sup>12</sup> And when Jesus saw her, he called her and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." <sup>13</sup> And he laid his hands upon her, and immediately she was made straight, and she praised God. <sup>14</sup> But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be healed, and not on the sabbath day." <sup>15</sup> Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his ass from the manger, and lead it away to water it? <sup>16</sup> And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?" <sup>17</sup> As he said this, all his adversaries were put to shame; and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>18</sup> He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like?

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and God was that Word. <sup>2</sup>The same was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things were made by it and without it, was made nothing that was made. <sup>4</sup>In it was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>And the light shineth in the darknesse, and the darknesse comprehendeth it not. <sup>6</sup>There was a man sent from God, whose name was John: <sup>7</sup>The same came for a witnesse, that hee should beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleve. <sup>8</sup>He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light. <sup>9</sup>That light was the true light, which lighteth every man that commeth into the world. <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. <sup>11</sup>Hee came into his owne, and his owne received him not. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received him, to them gave he power to be the sonnes of God, even to them that beleved on his Name, <sup>13</sup>Which were borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor yet of the will of man, but of God. <sup>14</sup>And the same worde became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we saw the glory of it, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne that came from the Father) full of grace and trueth. <sup>15</sup>John beareth witnesse of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whome I spake, He that commeth after me, is preferred before me, for he was before me. <sup>16</sup>And of his fulnesse have all we received, and grace for grace. <sup>17</sup>For the Lawe was given by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Jesus

RSV (1946) 1960

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>He was in the beginning with God; <sup>3</sup>all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. <sup>4</sup>In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup>He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup>He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

<sup>9</sup>The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. <sup>11</sup>He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. <sup>12</sup>But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; <sup>13</sup>who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup>And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father. <sup>15</sup>(John bore witness to him, and cried, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.'") <sup>16</sup>And from his fulness have we all received, grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup>For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth

Jesus sayeth unto them, Loose him, and let him goe. <sup>45</sup> Then many of the Jewes which came to Mary, and had seene the things which Jesus did, beleved on him. <sup>46</sup> But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and tolde them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> Then gathered the high Priestes and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. <sup>48</sup> If we let him scape thus, all men will beleve on him, and the Romanes shal come, and take away both our roome, and the people. <sup>49</sup> And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high Priest that same yeere, said unto them, Ye perceive nothing at all, <sup>50</sup> Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and not that all the nation perish. <sup>51</sup> This spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yeere, hee prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation: <sup>52</sup> And not for that nation onely, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup> Then from that day fourth, they tooke counsell together for to put him to death. <sup>54</sup> Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes: but went his way thence unto a countrey nigh to a wilderness, into a citie which is called Ephraim, and may believe that thou didst send me." <sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." <sup>44</sup> The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

<sup>45</sup> Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him; <sup>46</sup> but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council, and said, "What are we to do? For this man performs many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let him go on thus, every one will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation." <sup>49</sup> But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all; <sup>50</sup> you do not understand that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish." <sup>51</sup> He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup> So from that day on they took counsel how to put him to death.

15 I am the true Vine, and my Father is the husband-man. <sup>2</sup> Every branch that beareth not fruit in mee, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth, that it may bring forth more fruit. <sup>3</sup> Nowe are yee cleane through the word which I have spoken unto you. <sup>4</sup> Bide in me, and I in you: As the branch can not beare fruit of it selfe, except it bide in the vine: no more can ye, except ye abide in me. <sup>5</sup> I am the Vine, ye are the branches: Hee that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If a man bide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne. <sup>7</sup> If ye bide in me, and my wordes abide in you, ye shall aske what ye will, and it shalbe done for you. <sup>8</sup> Herein is my father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and become my disciples. <sup>9</sup> As the father hath loved me, even so have I loved you: continue you in my love. <sup>10</sup> If ye keepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my fathers commandements, and abide in his love. <sup>11</sup> These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remaine in you, and that your joy might be full. <sup>12</sup> This is my commandement, that yee love together, as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> Greater love hath no man then this, that a man bestow his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup> Ye are my friends,

RSV (1946) 1960

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-dresser. <sup>2</sup> Every branch of mine that bears no fruit, he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. <sup>3</sup> You are already made clean by the word which I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup> Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. <sup>5</sup> I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If a man does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire and burned. <sup>7</sup> If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you. <sup>8</sup> By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples. <sup>9</sup> As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love. <sup>10</sup> If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. <sup>11</sup> These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

dead, they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup> But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. <sup>35</sup> He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth—that you also may believe. <sup>36</sup> For these things took place that the scripture might be fulfilled, "Not a bone of him shall be broken." <sup>37</sup> And again another scripture says, "They shall look on him whom they have pierced."

<sup>38</sup> After this Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave. So he came and took away his body. <sup>39</sup> Nicodemus also, who had at first come to him by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds' weight. <sup>40</sup> They took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. <sup>41</sup> Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb where no one had ever been laid. <sup>42</sup> So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, as the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

YOU SHAL RETEINE, THEY ARE RETAINED. <sup>24</sup> But Thomas one of the Twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen our Lord. But he said to them, Unles I see in his handes the print of the nailles, and put my finger into the place of the nailles, and put my hand into his side: I wil not belevee.

<sup>26</sup> And after eight daies, againe his disciples were within: and Thomas with them. JESUS commeth the doores being shut, and stodee in the middes, and said, Peace be to you.

<sup>27</sup> Then he saith to Thomas, Put in thy finger hither, and see my handes, and bring hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not incredulous but faithful. <sup>28</sup> Thomas answered, and said to him, My Lord, and my God. <sup>29</sup> JESUS saith to him, Because thou hast seen me, Thomas, thou hast beleved: blessed are they that have not seen and have beleved.

<sup>30</sup> Many other signes also did JESUS in the sight of his disciples, which are not written in this booke. <sup>31</sup> And these are written, that you may belevee that JESUS is CHRIST the sonne of God: and that beleeveng, you may have life in his name.
